

STILLY VALLEY TREK

Arlington Art Walk
Centennial Trail
arlingtonartscouncil.net

CENTENNIAL TRAIL

The Centennial trail is an approximately 30 miles following the old Burlington-Northern railroad line. The trail is paved which makes it good for running, walking, biking, horseback riding, skating and longboarding. The Centennial trail is good for people of all physical abilities and offers a variety of scenic views. At Legion park in Arlington, you can explore the Arlington Art Walk. Here you will see an array of art pieces created by local artists.

Access Points:

1. Legion Park - 114 N Olympic, Arlington
2. Haller Park - 1100 West Ave, Arlington
3. Getchell - 8318 Westlund RD, Arlington
4. Armar Trailhead - 15200 67th ave NE, Arlington
5. CT North - 32328 SR 9, Arlington
6. Bryant - SR9 & Stanwood-Bryant Rd

